Tracks

Playwright: Peter Tarsi

Director: Claire Baur

Stage Manager: Ashley Harris

Tracks explores the lives of several different individuals all brought together on a Subway station after their deaths. Together, they attempt to solve the mystery of where the train will take them when it pulls into the station, Heaven or Hell, by evaluating each others' past triumphs and mistakes.

How to Succeed in High School Without Really

Playwright: Jonathan Rand

Director: Alicia Neale

Want to know the easiest way to make it through the grueling abyss known as high school? A group of student agents infiltrate an assembly to demonstrate their secret tips and tricks, ranging from legally changing your name to get around roll call, to using Tom Cruise to help memorize science terms. High school will never be the same.

Thank you for flushing my head in the toilet... and other rarely used expressions.

Playwright: Johnathon Dorf

Director: Cameron Tyler

For Achilles and Helen, getting bullied is a dismal fact of life -- Achilles regularly has his head flushed in the toilet, and Helen invents reasons to arrive late to school so she can avoid a vicious clique. When cool girl Glinda magically materializes and offers them a way out, they each jump at the chance. But Glinda's solution is to turn them into the very people who have tormented them. Can Achilles and Helen find another way out?
